Excellence in the Arts

The seniors featured here have demonstrated a commitment and excellence to the performing and visual arts. Tri-M Honor Society members have been continuously enrolled in band, orchestra, or chorus since freshman year, earned membership in All-State at least once, and participated in music-related extracurriculars and community outreach. International Thespian Society members participated in at least two mainstage productions at Northview and logged additional theater credit hours. National Art Honor Society students consistently demonstrated the highest qualities in art, scholarship, character, and service. The Fine Arts Diploma Seal is awarded by the Georgia Department of Education to students who completed a fine arts pathway by earning at least three full credits in their field of study and a fourth creative industry/arts credit, engaged in arts extracurriculars and community service, and completed a capstone project.

Happy 20th Anniversary, Northview High School!

“In the beginning there was a 73-acre field full of darkness and possibility. School leaders emerged and brought forth their vision. The architect lifted the haze of obscurity. The builders came and sparked the reality. The community created the atmosphere...and then there was light.

As the sun began to rise on August 12, 2002, Northview students and faculty eagerly began to prepare for the inaugural day of our new school. First to arrive was Northview’s guiding light, Principal Peter Zervakos. By 8:00 AM, the halls of Northview came alive for the first time as the student body explored its new territory. At 8:15 AM when the JROTC raised the flag for the first time there was an excitement in the air, and everyone felt electrified. Finally, the last bell rang and the first day of school was on record as a huge success. It was time for new friendships, new traditions, and new beginnings.”

— An excerpt from Issue 1, Volume 1, 2003, p. 1 & 8, of the Mnemosyne, Northview’s Yearbook.

For twenty years Northview High School has ranked as one of the top five public schools in Georgia and held one of the best national rankings in the state. As we celebrate our 20th Anniversary, we will continue to look back at the traditions that have kept us strong and continue to live by our school slogan,
Ever Upward and Onward!

Northview Alma Mater

To Northview High, our school our alma mater, our voices ring in praise to thee they swell.

Beyond our years within these halls of learning, thy memory dear, within our hearts shall dwell.

We raise the torch of courage, truth,
and honor, to Northview High,
we pledge our loyalty.

Ever Upward and Onward!
