Congratulations for choosing to continue your study of Spanish at the AP level! The AP Spanish Language and Culture Exam is designed to test your skills in order to see how well they compare to abilities found in a third year college course. The exam will test all of the major language skills: listening, reading comprehension, speaking, and writing in addition to general cultural knowledge of the Hispanic World. I welcome you to this rewarding and challenging course and to this journey exploring six major themes of study!

The primary goal of your summer assignment is to keep your skills sharpened. To this end, I suggest that you keep up with the weekly schedule I have set up in your Teams assignments. You need consistent practice; you can't "cram" for language learning. Short but frequent practice sessions are more productive than just a few long sessions. Plan ahead if you will be traveling. Buy a copy of People en Español and download an audiobook or some podcasts to enjoy on your trip! Search out opportunities to practice your Spanish whenever you can! Most importantly, do not wait until the last weeks of summer to do your assignments.

LA TAREA

(EQUIVALENTE A UN EXAMEN)

Listening Practice – Each week you will listen to a Spanish language podcast from Radio Ambulante. Depending on the topic, accent, speed of speech, vocabulary, etc. you may find this to be a difficult task at first. Give it multiple listens if you need to. The only way to improve on your listening comprehension is to do more listening.

Select episodes that you find interesting! You can filter episodes by topic and country.

For each episode that you listen to, you will document new words that you've learned, and provide a brief summary and personal reaction.

Speaking Practice – Each week, after listening to a podcast episode, you will record a video in which you summarize what was discussed and give a personal reaction to the episode. You can mention your opinions on the topic, how the topic impacts your life, what you might do to learn more about it, etc.

In Flipgrid, record a video (including your beautiful smile!) of approximately 2 minutes entirely in Spanish. Do jot down bullet points that you would like to cover but do NOT write a script. Don't stress about perfection. If you mess up, just correct yourself. This is meant as a practice activity-not an assessment; there is no need for anxiety. Over the course of the year, you will be speaking in front of others a lot so try to shed those insecurities!

To submit your work: Each week, you will add to the Word Document that I've assigned in Teams. Here, you will enter information about the specific podcast episode you listened to. In Teams, you'll also find links to record your weekly summary and reaction video.

I'm really looking forward to seeing you in August! ¡Ten un verano fenomenal mientras practiques tu español! :o)

1	If the term is a verb, remember that you'll need the infinitive to be able to search for it in the dictionary.	Use https://www.wordreference.com/ or https://www.spanishdict.com/translation to look up terms. Only use Google Translate if you have no luck with either of these.	If you know a synonym or can explain in your own words, great!
2	Any new word or phrase that you heard that either you were able to figure out from context or was completely unknown to you.	No cognates. If the term is a cognate (same basic word and same basic meaning) then it does not count as a new word.	If you don't know how to express this term in Spanish in a different way, use Diccionario de la lengua española on https://www.rae.es/ . Simplify the definition to something more easily understood.
3	Include 5-10 terms
